

The Fowler Estates Scholarship Foundation

Mission

The mission of the Fowler Estates Scholarship is to find and recognize students of the Ivanna Eudora Kean High School with exceptional leadership potential. We are seeking students who are committed to pursuing an undergraduate degree while enrolled in ROTC. This scholarship will provide students with financial support and mentorship for future professional development.

Purpose

The Fowler Estates Scholarship provides up to $1,000.00 per year in funding to students pursuing undergraduate degrees with a concentration in military studies (ROTC).

Application Instructions

- All applicants must be high school seniors of the Ivanna Eudora Kean High School.
- Qualifying students are to complete and submit the attached application when applying for the Fowler Estates Scholarship by April 15, 2014.
- Prior to the procurement of funds, a potential scholarship recipient will be required to provide a copy of the acceptance letter and class schedule from the attending university. Students are asked to send these materials with the scholarship application, if they are available. If the material is not available, students are asked to provide an expected date for sending this information to the scholarship committee.
- Late applications will not be accepted.
